

Testing

The different engine and tyre models on offer are tested following government guidelines.

Results are recorded in a publicly available database

Sales

When a vehicle is sold, the seller records the tyre and engine configuration of the vehicle

Compliance

At the end of the sales period, an average value of tyre and engine test results is calculated for in each vehicle class.

The results are compared to targets to determine compliance